Location

Situated in a picturesque Balgownie Street, the property is close to all amenities the busy family desires. A short walk around the corner will take you into the charming village centre, a bustling hive of activity home to cafes, restaurants, services, a community centre and the iconic Balgownie Hotel. The local footy club at Judy Masters Park is also within a quick stroll and reputable schools are just moments away.

The highlight of this spectacular location, however, is the proximity to a choice of world-class beaches that beckon only minutes from your new home!...
