

26 Beattie Avenue Bulli, NSW

A retro gem in an idyllic coastal location

Set on a lush 581sqm (approx.) triangular block with neighbouring parkland, this ideally located two-bedroom retro home offers tonnes of potential to be renovated into the perfect coastal home or getaway. You'll love the peaceful location just minutes from your choice of beautiful beaches, and close to schools, public transport and Bulli's thriving town centre. You'll be able to live here comfortably, or rent it out to tenants, while you plan your renovations to transform this fantastic retro gem into your dream home.

Location

Pack the beach bag on sunny Bulli mornings, and take your pick of stunning beaches to spend the day at. McCauley's Beach and Sandon Point Beach are both only a 3-minute drive (approx.) away, while Bulli's iconic beach and rock pool are only five minutes (approx.) from home.

Stroll into Bulli's beautiful town centre, with its range of cafes, eateries, shops and large supermarket, just a ten-minute (approx.) walk from home, or jump in the car and head over to the cosmopolitan village of Thirroul in just eight minutes (approx.) to enjoy its chic eateries and cafes, and tempting boutique shopping. You'll love being able to walk the little kids to Bulli
